

SLO/SB Counties Ag Watershed Coalition
And
Coastal San Luis Resource Conservation District (CSLRCD)
Present

“Cut the Crap” for Ranchers!

Tuesday, Jan. 30, 2007

2-5:00 PM

Far Western Tavern

899 Guadalupe St

Guadalupe, CA

*$10.00 Fee**

Dinner provided after meeting

Wednesday, Jan. 31, 2007

8-11:00 AM

Morro Bay Community Ctr

1001 Kennedy Way

Morro Bay

*$5.00 Fee**

Breakfast provided before meeting

Introductions and Welcome	Kay Mercer, Coordinator SLO/SB Counties Ag Watershed Coalition
Addressing Water and Food Safety Issues from Pathogenic E. coli in Livestock.	Rob Atwill UCCE Specialist Veterinary Medicine Extension
Using Vegetation and Wetlands to Filter Microbial Pollutants From Runoff	Ken Tate UCCE Rangeland Watershed Specialist
Linking on Farm Practices and Watershed Factors with Water Quality	Dave Lewis Sonoma County Watershed Management and Research
How May Rangeland Water Quality Be Regulated in the Future?	Lisa McCann RWQCB
Seminar Recap	Royce Larsen SLO County Natural Resource/Watershed Advisor

RSVP Required! Call (805) 928-6301

Three Hours of RWQCB Continuing Education Credits Have Been Requested

Funding assistance for this course is provided by the CSLRCD through a grant from the USEPA/SWRCB Nonpoint Source Pollution Control Program.

\ Meeting fees may be waived depending on additional donations.*