

Coordinated Permitting for Watershed Restoration

IN THE PAJARO RIVER AND APTOS CREEK WATERSHEDS

An Informational Meeting to Introduce The Santa Cruz Countywide Partners in Restoration Permit Coordination Program

Assisting Landowners in Santa Cruz County through the Permitting Process for Environmentally Beneficial Projects

Thursday ~ March 22, 2007

5:30 PM to 7:00 PM

Fitz Wetlands Educational Resource Center
Watsonville, Ca (see directions below)

5:30 PM

Welcome/Introductions

Kelli Camara, Soil Conservationist, Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

Jennifer Stern, Restoration Ecologist, Santa Cruz Resource Conservation District (RCD)

5:45 PM

Permit Coordination Projects

Practice descriptions and permitting coverage with the Permit Coordination Program.

6:15 PM

How the Permit Coordination Program Works for Landowners

Explanation of how to participate in the program, the permit coordination process and benefits.

7:00 PM

Adjourn

Directions: The Fitz Wetlands Educational Resource Center is located at the top of the hill at Pajaro Valley High School in Watsonville. Address: 500 Harkins Slough Road Watsonville, Ca From the intersection of Green Valley and Main Street, travel toward the ocean for approximately 1 mile. Enter the Pajaro Valley High campus and continue to the top of campus. Facilities donated by: The Fitz Wetlands Educational Resource Center.

Questions? Contact Jen Stern at the RCD office: (831) 464-2950 ext 24 or at jsstern@scrcrd.org